As stated on the record during the September 29, 2020 telephone conference, the briefing schedule for the parties' anticipated motions for summary judgment is as follows:

- (a) Defendants will produce the administrative record by October 26, 2020;
- (b) Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment will be filed by November 25, 2020;
- (c) Defendants' cross-motion for summary judgment will be filed by January 8, 2021;
- (d) Plaintiffs' reply/opposition will be filed by February 5, 2021; and
- (e) Defendants' reply on any cross-motion will be filed by February 19, 2021.

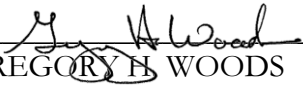

The parties are directed to comply with the Southern District of New York's Local Rules and the Court's Individual Rules of Practice in Civil Cases, specifically the Rules governing motions for summary judgment and courtesy copies. The parties are directed to submit the full administrative record in electronic format with Optical Character Recognition along with their courtesy copies. The parties are further directed to confer regarding the appropriate page limits for the motions for summary judgment and if necessary, submit a written request to the Court for an extension of the Court's default rules.

Furthermore, for the reasons stated on the record during the September 29, 2020 conference, the deadline for Defendants to answer the complaint is adjourned to 14 days after the Court's resolution of the motions for summary judgment.

The initial pretrial conference scheduled for November 9, 2020 is adjourned. If necessary, the Court will reschedule an initial pretrial conference upon its resolution of the motions for summary judgment.
